On Christmas day in 1611, Lancelot Andrewes preached a sermon at Whitehall before King James 1, on John 1:14 "And the Word was made Flesh, and dwelt among us." This sermon, rich in evocative imagery, and much beloved by T.S. Eliot, will be the subject of our Advent Quiet Day reflection, led by the Rev. Daniel Graves.

The Rev. Daniel Graves is the incumbent of St. Paul's, Newmarket, the editor of the Journal of the Canadian Church Historical Society, and the author of many articles on Richard Hooker. He has also taught and lectured on the Healing ministry and is the compiler of Prayers for Healing from the Anglican Tradition, and the co-editor of Richard Hooker: His Life, Work, and Legacy - Essays in Honour of W. David Neelands.
